

Volunteer Opportunities with ATP's Environmental Education Program

Outdoor Entertainment/Game Organizer for Children

The volunteer should bring his or her experience in non-formal and interactive environmental education learning for young Armenians (9-15 years old). Knowledge of Armenian is a plus but not required.

Key Responsibilities:

- Develop new teaching methods for environmental education at public schools through simple exercises and tasks (this may include puzzles, quizzes, print and play games, etc.)
- Develop hands-on activities which might be used during field trips and visits to ATP's Nurseries and Environmental Education Centers
- Develop ideas for the implementation of competitions with environmental themes, local campaigns, community projects, etc.

Monitoring and Evaluation Specialist

Under the supervision and guidance of ATP's Environmental Education Program Manager, the Monitoring and Evaluation Specialist will assist in the development and implementation of a mechanism for the monitoring and evaluation of Environmental Education programs, particularly teacher trainings. The Monitoring and Evaluation Specialist will work with staff in designing a monitoring and reporting system to track project status and progress toward achievement of results outlined in annual work plans.

Key Responsibilities:

- Support, advise, and guide results-based monitoring and evaluation
- Assist in the development of relevant milestones and indicators for substantive accomplishments in each main task area
- Formulate operational plans to monitor milestones and report on indicators
- Recommend a reporting schedule that provides timely information without being unduly burdensome or distracting from project implementation
- Participate in data collection, processing, and reporting activities

Required Qualifications:

- At least 3 years of experience in the area of monitoring and evaluation
- Proven ability to design and implement a monitoring and evaluation plan
- Excellent writing ability and excellent communication, interpersonal, and teamwork skills